SHOWING IN THE QUARER CITY. Defeat Again Spreads Over the Metropoli-tans-Columbia College's Team Knocked Endways by Marvard-Other Games.

The past week, and especially the last day of it, has been of decided interest in base ball. The championship season of the National League opened last Thursday, but owing to the rainy weather the several clubs did not get under full headway until yesterday. The Eastern and International Leagues also began the season yesterday, and under very favorable circumstances, too. Interesting games were played in both organizations. Little may be said of the League race yet, owing to the fewness of the games played. The Detroit Club has done the best work so far by defeating the League baby three straight rames, while New York has won two out of three, and Boston has won both the games it ooklyns are holding their own manfully, with good show for first place, while the Metrolitans are running along at the bottom with o chance of going lower than last place. In yesterday's games Philadelphia beat New

In yesterday's games Philadelphia beat New York, Pittsburgh beat Chicago, Boston beat Washington, and Detroit beat Indianapolis. In the American Association, St. Louis beat Clevciand, Athletic beat Brooklyn, Baltimore beat the Metropolitans, and owing to a railroad accident the Cincinnati Club forfeited a game to Louisville.

The week's games have resulted in several changes in the race for the pennant in the Southern League. The clubs are all improving in their work, and during the week guite a number of new players have been signed, principally pitchers, who are still in great demand. The Charleston Club directors are telegraphing in every direction for good pitchers, having disabled one and released another of their four batteries.

In the second inning the Philadelphias were prevented from scoring, a brilliant double play by Ewing and Connor and a fix catch by Tiernan boing the features of the inning. The Giants were also shut out in this inning, but in the third the Philadelphias again got onto the ball in lively tashion Farrar opened with a double, which Ferguson duplicated a moment later, bringing Farrar home. Fergy stole third, and Clements went out on a high fly to Tiernan. Fogarty and Andrews made singles and Daily punched the ball far over the left fielders' head for two bags. Then wood electrified the crowd by hitting the ball over the fence for a home run and clearing the bases. Buffinton scored on a base on balls and a wild pitch. Irwin went out, Keefe to Conners. Ferguson got his base on balls, but Clements ended the inning by hitting to Ewing.

In the fourth, flith, sixth, and seventh innings. Keefe braced up considerable, and the Phillies were unable to score, making only one hit in each, though Dailey's drive into the left field crowd was in reality the longest hit of the day. He got two bases on it, but was left there. A great ruffing catch by Dorgan of a hit from Buffinton at, and a double play, in which Tierman had part, were the fielding features of the innings. Meanwhile the Giants had been steadily pegging away in the fourth inning. After two hands were out, Ewing pounded the basis over the fence, and trotted around the bases. He did the same thing in the sixth.

The run in the fifth was made on O'Rourke's single and Gillespie's double. The last named player hit a hot one to Andrews in the seventh. It was stopped in great style, but Andrews, who is suffering with a lame arm, threw wild, and Gillespie at second on what should have been a double play but for Andrews's error. Blohardson made a hit, Kee

HARVARD EASILY DEFEATS COLUMBIA.

It was a cold day at the Polo grounds yesterday, but it was much colder for the Columbia College team. For the first time in the history of base ball this city is represented in the College League, and this was the first regular College League game played here. The wind blow a gale all through the game, and huge clouds of dust rolled up over the grounds. The teams made their appearance on the field amid the waving of handkerchiefs by the pretty girls, and round after round of college cries. The players made a pretty showing, the Harvard men in their marcon and black caps, marcon shirts and stockings, and gray preeches being in striking contrast to the white breeches, and blue caps and stockings of the Columbias. The visitors brought along their mascot, a small bull pup.

The contest was a wretchedly played one on the part of the Columbia team, and almost from the start they showed that they were slender opponents for the Harvards. They seemed to be weak at all points. A long running catch by La Marche of Willard's hit for three bases was the only feature in the Columbias play.

Harvard played a very sharp game, and batning catch by La Marche of Willard's hit for three bases was the only feature in the Columbias' play.

Harvard played a very sharpgame, and batted with telling effect. As base runners they are wonders. Boyden, their pitcher, was too much for the home team, and they beat the wind in their attempts to hit the ball.

The Columbia enthusiasts seemed to freeze up after the first inning or two, and the "Rahrah-G-O-L-U-M-B-I-A!" died out in the fifth inning, when some one yelled: "Rats! Rats! Rats! C-O-L-U-M-B-I-A!"

The Harvard men were the first to start the ball. Wiestling cut the horseskin into centre field for one bag. He showed himself a remarkable runner, successfully stealing second and third bases, and came in on Forster's flyout to Cameron. Campbell then hit a daisy cutter to left field, and came in on Willard's cut for one base to the right field. The third inning resulted in nothing for Columbia. The Harvard men again got in their fine work. Campbell hit for a single base, stole second and third, and came in on a wild throw by Gates. Score, 3 to 6, in favor of Harvard. Harvard's mascot sat on the players' bench and waged his tail over the success of his magic.

The Columbias got in a two-base hit in the fourth inning, but Boyden's pitching was too much for them, and the side went out with no score. The Harvards opened this inning with a hit by Boyden. He was enabled to move up on a passed ball and Bingham's sacrifice, and scored on a muff by De Sibourg.

In the fifth inning the Columbia boys became rattled and went to pieces all at once, and

In the fifth inning the Columbia boys became rattled and went to pieces all at once, and from four hits and nearly double that many errors the visitors scored eight runs. This ended the run getting, the work for the rest of the game being sharp and well played. The score:

BALTIMORE, April 30.—Mays was batted hard and often to-day, and the Metropolitan fielder played in wretched form, allowing the Bait more team to win with ease. It was a veritable slugging match from start to finish, but the bating was nearly all done by the home team as Kilroy, though wild, was effective, only all clean hits being made off him. The score:

A DEFEAT FOR BROOKLYN. PRILADELPHIA. April 30.—For seven innings to-day Titoomb was entirely too much for the Brooklyn players. Beginning with the eighth, however, he weakened, and the visitors knocked out five runs on a base on balls, four singles, and a double. Fortunately for the Athletics, they had secured a good lead in the early part of the game, which the Brooklyns, notwithstanding their brilliant rally, were unable to overcome. The batting of Stovey and the fielding of Smith were the features. Stovey was injured in the sixth inning, Milligan taking his place. The score:

The First Lague victors for Pittsburge Pittsburge. April 30.—The League championship season was opened in this city to-day after being postponed two days on account of bad weather. A procession through the two cities and a brass band concert at Becreation Park preceded the game. A fine day attracted over 9,000 spectators, who became almost wild with excitement when the Pittsburgh took the lead in the first inning and held it throughout the game. The playing of both clube was brilliant. The only fielding error made by the Pittsburghs was a dropped fib by Smith, which he ran after out into the centre field. The fielding errors of the Chicagos were excusable. Sunday dropped a hot fly after a hard run, and Daly made a wild throw to second, which let in a run. Galvin and Clarkson both did well under the new rules, especially the former. The Pittsburghs made two runs in the first inning on a tripple by Dalrymple, a single by Brown, base on balls, a long fly of Barkley. One in the second on a single by McKinnon and tripple by Whitney. Two in the fourth on hit by pitcher, McKinnon's dropped, single by Whitney and long fly Smith, and one in the eighth on Sunday's muff of Miller's fly and McKinnon's double. The Chicagos made one run in the seventh on Anson's hit. Pieffer's double, and Williamson's sacrifice, and one in the ninth-on Sullivan's three-bagger and Anson's sacrifice. The score:

FORFEIT TO LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, April 30.—Propitious weather brought out a large crowd at the base ball park this afternoon, only, however, to be disappointed. The Cincinnatt Club went from here to Evansville, Ind., yesterday, and expected to return in time for the game to-day, An accident on the Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis road dotained them, and the umpire announced that according to the rules the game went to Louisville by a score of 9 to 0, owing to the failure of Cincinnati to put in an appearance.

re James D. Smith. Presider Exchange, yesterday documed himself a straight-out buil on the stock market. He said that everything shroughout the country warranted a higher range of prices for railroad securities.

Mr. Theodore W. Myers of the Stock Exchange said that the majority of the Board room traders were apparently inclined to jump on the market, but that the capital of the country and the majority of the big men in the street were arrayed on the bull cide. Mr. Myers did not anticipate any permanent injury to the market from the workings of the Inter-State law.

Mr. Douglas Green of Green & Bateman has just been elected President of the Savannah, Dublin and Western, the Birmingham, La Grange and Nacon, and the Covington and Nacon Railroads, and he left last night on a tour of impection of these roads. His train will be pulled through Georgia by an engine named for his partner, Commodere & E. Bateman. Mr. John H. Davis of the Stock Exchange has been summoned by cable to the sick room of his in Paris. Mr. Davis is now on his way to Havre.

Mr. E. K. Willard said yesterday that he had ordered the private wires leading into his office from other cities to be removed, as there was not sufficient business in the out-of-town patronage to warrant the expense. It appears that members of the Consolidated Stock and Petroleum Exchange differ with Mr. Willard, for Broker MacFarlan and other members of that Exchange yesterday concluded to order private wires into their offices.

Mr. Gerard B. Scranton, a popular member of E. K. Willard & Co., retired from the firm yesterday. The mining people on the Consolidated Stock and Petro-leum Exchange are predicting another boom in mining shares, and some of them pointed yesterday with pride at the strides of El Cristo.

Chairman A. W. Peters of the Consolidated Stock and Chairman A. W. Peters of the Consolidated stock and Petroleum Exchange announced from the rostrum yes-terday that to morrow 25 cents for 1,000 barrels of pe-troleum would be the daily storage charge. It has been 41% cents, subject, of course, to fluctuations. Oil loaned yesterday for to-day at 50 cents, and for to morrow at 25 cents, but the fact that 25 cents is to be the basis was halled-with pleasure.

Forty niper John Gault beld his twenty first reception resterday, and all his broker friends tackled the twenty-one turkeys and other things he furnished in commen oration of the event.

Lieut.-Gov. Jones was the guest of the Democrats on the Produce Exchange yesterday. His moustache, if anything, is larger and more wavy, and not an extra gray hair has been added to it by the efforts of the Republican Senators to buildone him. He thought the Exchange was quite a shop.

Gov. Hill called on ex-State Senator John J. Kiernan yesterday, and while he was there Uncle Daulel La-mont dropped in. The Governor and the private secre-tary greeted each other with cordiality. Senator Kiernan also had for visitors State Senators Senator Kiernan also had for visitors state senators Vedder, Comstock, and Fassett, Judge Muller of the Court of Claims, and United States Comptroller Tren-holm. ex-President Henry Hentz of the Cotton Exchange called on Assemblyman Cantor at 115 Nassau street yea-terday and urged him to do his best to defeat the bill of Assemblyman Peter McCann. The bill declares that trading in "futures" or "options" must be stopped.

Wheat on the Produce Exchange looked brighter yesterday. Jane, now the pet option, touched 83% cents, with a subsequent slight reaction. Exporters were again the maintain here, taking forty-six boat loads. The situation is said to favor, if not higher prices, certainly the maintaining of present figures. The demands from France are larger, and the English home supplies the produced. They is account what are said to be reduced. There is enough wheat in Liverpool, but that is being manipulated in the interest of the Chicago clique. The Chicago boys now have big lots of June, having bought in the last few days 7,000,000

CLOSING PRICES.

SATURDAY, April 30. To-day's stock market was an exceedingly tame affair. The operators who have been most active lately appear to be indifferent to the course of prices, and are naturally without any particular leadership. The trading element is averse to extensive ventures. As to the outside interest, it appears to be dormant.

The only indications of orders from beyond the limits of the street are found in the bond the limits of the street are found in the bond market, which is fairly active and strong.

The dealings to-day were the smallest of any day this week. In only two stocks did the transactions aggregate 10,000 shares each. Yet the business, though light, was exceedingly well distributed. Beading was the most active stock, and it was very strong throughout. It was an exception in closing with a net gain. President Corbin denies that any particular progress has been made toward a settlement with the holders of the junior securi-ties, of the company that have not assented to the plan of reorganization. It is a fair assumption, therefore, that the strength of Beading is due almost entirely to

It is a fair assumption, therefore, that the strength of Beading is due almost entirely to the large increase in net earnings, which is due in part to Mr. Corbin's management, but more to the fact that the Reading Company is no longer a disturbing factor in the anthracite coal trade.

Fort Worth and Denver City was second in point of activity, but at a reaction from yesterday's exceptional advance. About the only other noteworthy dealings were in Missouri Pacific, which was more extensively dealt in than it has been for a long while. It was strong throughout, and retained a large part of the improvement in price.

The trading in New England was sufficient to make it rank third in point of activity. The market for it was fully firm. Through the rest of the list the transactions may be regarded as practically nominal.

The specialties were in the main quiet, although there was a fair volume of business in Colorado Coal and in Kington and Pembroke. The last named was significantly strong. With the opening of navigation, it is expected that this, property will make an unusually good showing of earnings, as it is to an extent dependent upon navigation for the forwarding of a large part of the business originating upon its lines. The news of the day consisted almost entirely of the usual trade reports that are presented at the close of the week. They were of a moderate improvement in general business, but of a less desirable industrial situation. The bank clearances show a small falling off in exchanges as compared with last week, but they are much larger than a year ago. The business in the Unlisted Denter the server was appeal when the server was applied.

small in number and in the amount of liabilities.

The volume of business in the Unlisted Department was small. American Cottonseed Trusts were lower, selling at 53% to 52%. Des Moines and Fort Dodge advanced from 16% to 17%. Brooklyn Elevated sold at 64 to 63%, and Toledo, Ann Arbor and North Michigan at 23% to 23. A few sales of New York West Shore and Buffalo old stock at 2% to % appeared on to-day's list. After being generally strong all day, prices yielded in the last hour under realizing by the room traders, so that the net results of the day were lower prices.

hour under realizing by the room traders, so that the net results of the day were lower prices.

The market throughout the week has been entirely a waiting one, enlivened only by the breaks in New England. The course of prices, together with the evidence that small and not altogether scrupulous operators can control them for the moment has tended to discourage general interest in the market. However, the situation is generally regarded as favorable, and all of the efforts to depress prices have been unable to start anything approaching liquidation. As compared with the final prices of last Saturday night, the list is practically unchanged. While a number of stocks are a shade lower, the only decline worthy of note is that of 2½ % cent in New York and New England, and the only net advances of any magnitude were 1½ % cent, in Northwest, 3½ % cent, in Fort Worth and Denver City, and 4½ % cent, in Fort Worth and Denver City, and 4½ % cent, in Fort Worth and Denver City, and
